

Oedo Vaudeville Show and Traditional Geisha Dances VII

Enjoy the exciting world of Japanese traditional entertainment !

Part 1 starts with Japanese style illusion performance, followed by “Manzai” which is a Japanese traditional style of stand-up comedy. Street scenes and life in the flourishing Edo period are recaptured in masterly performance of Rakugo, a traditional storytelling art.

Part 2 features beautiful traditional dances performed by geisha dancers, and a performance by “Hokan”, a professional male entertainer.

They all come from six of the entertainment districts in Tokyo, namely Shinbashi, Akasaka, Asakusa, Kagurazaka, Yoshicho and Mukojima.

English audio guides are available to help you understand the stories and lyrics.
